About the Author

My Invisible World

Life with my brother, his disability and his dog

by Morasha Winokur

Morasha's Bio

Morasha's life in the United States began at 14 months when she was adopted from Russia by her parents, Donnie and Rabbi Harvey Winokur. As a toddler, Morasha created elaborate stories about her "former" life in Russia setting the stage for developing a vivid imagination and irresistible style of expression. At eleven years old, Morasha is in sixth grade at a public school in Roswell, Georgia. She lives with her parents, her brother, Iyal, his service dog, Chancer and two cats, Manhattan and Eilat.

Speaking opportunities

Morasha's mom, Donnie Kanter Winokur, Founding and former Executive Director of NOFAS

Georgia, (state affiliate of the National Organization on Fetal Alcohol Syndrome) is available to speak to organizations about the writing of "The Chancer Chronicles", about fetal alcohol spectrum disorders (FASD) as well as the use of service dogs for children living with Autism and other developmental disabilities.
